Marketing vs reality

RISEGUIDE

Watch · 6.5

The promise-versus-reality gap is holding, but the complaint keeps mutating and spreading. The 'it's all AI-generated' accusation that started on one store now appears on Google Play too — one reviewer dismissed the lessons as 'AI-generated content (questionable Italian grammar).' It's still a handful of voices against a solid five-star core, with 64 of 100 App Store reviews and 47 of 76 Google Play reviews landing at five stars this week, so the score holds. But the framing attacks credibility rather than quality, and it's worth watching.

LIVEN

Mixed · 5

Trustpilot still rewards the CBT wellness positioning, but app-store sentiment is slipping. Bug and slow-performance complaints are increasingly visible — marketed promise diverging from daily-use experience.

COURSIV

Mixed · 5.5

Beginner-AI lessons land strongly with first-time users — earned the cohort's most concentrated positive cluster. Drag remains deceptive-advertising and pricing complaints from outside the funnel.

HEADWAY LEADER

Healthy · 7

Book-summary promise delivered consistently across both stores. Sentiment is net-positive and stable, no new complaint cluster, and YouTube creator coverage is unanimously positive.

Unique value proposition

RISEGUIDE

Healthy · 7.5

The structured-journey format remains what people reach for when they praise the app, and it's still the densest positive theme in the entire dataset — 67 App Store reviews and 31 Google Play reviews this week landed in the satisfied-user bucket, averaging 4.7 stars. Mentions eased slightly from last week's level, but the underlying signal is unchanged: people who finish the journey rate it near-perfect. The differentiator is real and durable, and nothing this week threatened it.

LIVEN

Watch · 6.5

The CBT-companion + mood tracker stack is coherent on paper, but reviewers split on whether the AI companion helps or distracts. The differentiator isn't fully landing.

COURSIV

Healthy · 7.5

Mobile-first AI skill tracks remain clearly differentiated from desktop video-course competitors. Product experience earned the cohort's most concentrated positive sentiment.

HEADWAY

LEADER

Healthy · 8

Category leader by every measure: scale, feature maturity, review-base depth. No meaningful movement on the differentiation story.

Down from last week. Stability re-entered the conversation this week after a quiet spring. Bug and performance mentions rose on both stores — App Store performance mentions climbed from 7 to 10 and bugs from 2 to 5, while Google Play performance mentions jumped from 2 to 8. The ratings on those reviews stayed middling rather than damning, so this isn't a regression alarm — but a topic that had fully receded is back on the board, and that's the early warning worth heeding.

After a spring in which speed and stability had gone quiet, they're back on the board — bug and performance mentions rose on both stores this week, with App Store performance mentions up from 7 to 10 and Google Play from 2 to 8. The ratings on those reviews stayed middling rather than damning, so this isn't a regression alarm. But a topic that had fully receded is being discussed again, and catching whether it's noise or an early trend is the cheap move now.

Support channel availability

RISEGUIDE LEADER

Watch · 6

Coverage is unchanged — email and the help portal still carry every conversation, with no live chat or phone line anywhere. The model holds while volume is manageable, but it has no surge capacity: when billing complaints spike, as they did this week, the same inbox absorbs all of it. The next improvement that would actually move this score is a tooling investment, not another support hire.

LIVEN

Mixed · 4.5

Critical structural gap: the team engages actively on Android but doesn't reply to iOS reviews at all. The 'multi-channel support' claim doesn't hold on the largest store.

COURSIV LEADER

Watch · 6

Multi-tier support (email, portal, knowledge base) plus active engagement on visible channels. Less visibility on iOS — that app isn't in our tracking tool.

HEADWAY

Mixed · 5.5

Same iOS gap as Liven, newly visible: replies on Android but not iOS. Trustpilot's high reply rate was masking it — once Appbot iOS was added, the dead-zone surfaced.

Response speed & quality

RISEGUIDE

Watch · 6

▼ -0.5

Down from last week. The breakout support story is now fully unwound. After cooling last week, App Store reviews mentioning customer support fell to zero this week (from five), and Google Play barely registered it. This isn't a drop in quality — it's the team receding from the conversation entirely, confirming the spring surge was a one-off event rather than a new baseline. Support is currently neither a headline strength nor a live complaint.

The breakout support story is now fully unwound. After cooling last week, App Store reviews mentioning customer support fell to zero this week — down from five — and Google Play barely registered it. That's not a decline in quality but a receding from the conversation, confirming the spring surge was a one-off rather than a step change. Replies stay prompt when they're needed; support is simply no longer a topic reviewers raise, for praise or complaint.

LIVEN

Mixed · 4

Two-track operation: Android reviewers get steady engagement, iOS reviewers get nothing. Multi-week silence pattern reported by users is now confirmed as structural for iOS.

LEADER

Watch · 6.5

Where visible, response density is excellent — every Android reviewer gets a reply, including every negative one. iOS visibility gap caps the read at watch-level.

HEADWAY

Mixed · 5.5

Same dual-track problem as Liven, exposed for the first time: Android engagement is total, iOS engagement is zero. Previous high score was Trustpilot-only signal.

Complaint resolution rate

RISEGUIDE Mixed · 5 The 'everyone hears back' promise held perfectly again — every negative review across the App Store, Google Play and Trustpilot drew a company reply this week. But answering still isn't closing: this week's reviews include a customer who cancelled during a trial and was charged 49.99 euros monthly anyway, and another told there would be no refund. Responsiveness is a solved problem; turning a reply into a resolved outcome is not, and that gap is where the billing anger pools.	LIVEN Critical · 3.5 90% Trustpilot reply to negatives + Android Appbot strong, but iOS reviews accumulate without any response. Refund and bug threads on the largest store are structurally unanswered.	COURSIV LEADER Watch · 6.5 100% reply to negative reviews on Trustpilot, but only 63.5% reply rate overall. Selective engagement — they answer negatives when they see them but skip a third of all reviews. Review volume & rating

RISEGUIDE Healthy · 8.2 ▲ +0.3 Up from last week. Growth stayed broad and the ratings underneath it held or improved — the clean version of this picture. Trustpilot added roughly 480 reviews this week, a 2.2% increase, while holding at 4.4 stars; Google Play added about 110 reviews and actually ticked up to 4.08; and the App Store climbed past 16,100 reviews at 4.6. When volume rises this steadily without dragging the rating down, it reads as genuine momentum rather than a solicitation push. Down from last week. After weeks of the two app stores reading almost identically, they split this week — and in opposite directions. Google Play strengthened, with positive sentiment rising to about 79% and its negative share falling, while the App Store softened: one-star reviews doubled from 7 to 14 and dissatisfied-user mentions jumped from 5 to 9 at barely one star. The blended average looks stable, but underneath it the two platforms are pulling apart, and the App Store is the side that's slipping.

HEADWAY

iOS reads moderately positive; Android shows a near-tie between positive and negative. Fresh App Store reviews were notably worse than baseline — the worst fresh signal in the cohort.

Review authenticity signals

RISEGUIDE

Mixed · 4.5

The reliance on solicited reviews eased slightly — about 96% of Trustpilot reviews still came from company invitations, down a touch — but the compliance flags that returned last week doubled to four this week, and their character changed. Where recent flags alleged AI-fabricated reviews, this week's are blunt fraud accusations: 'They are SCAM,' 'auto debit without consent.' The independent tracker RealReviews still places RiseGuide mid-pack at 4.4 stars. Whether or not the flags are upheld, they're what most directly undercuts an invited-heavy average.

LIVEN

Healthy · 7

92.5% of Trustpilot reviews are invited — heavier solicitation than RiseGuide but lighter than Coursiv. The iOS reply silence means iOS reviews accumulate untouched — technically more organic on that store, but also a sign of disengagement.

COURSIV

LEADER

Healthy · 8

98.5% of Trustpilot reviews are invited — the heaviest solicitation pattern in the cohort. Massive volume (135K reviews) counterbalanced by a meaningfully positive organic Reddit signal. Volume is the credibility asset; authenticity is the question mark.

HEADWAY

LEADER

Healthy · 8

Only 40.5% of Trustpilot reviews are invited — by far the most organic profile in the cohort. Six-plus years of accumulation produces a naturally diluted invited-share vs the younger heavily-prompted competitors.

Company responsiveness to reviews

RISEGUIDE

LEADER

Healthy · 8.3

Still the cleanest signal in the scorecard. Every negative review on the App Store, Google Play and Trustpilot received a company reply this week, and overall reply coverage held at 100% across all three platforms. Whatever else is contested about how RiseGuide's reviews are collected, no unhappy customer is being left unanswered — and that consistency is a genuine, defensible strength that costs the brand nothing to maintain.

LIVEN

Mixed · 4.5

Two-track operation: Trustpilot reply at 90.5%, Android Appbot 94%, but iOS reply rate 0%. Previous high score reflected Trustpilot only — once iOS visibility was added, the structural gap became the dominant signal.

COURSIV

Healthy · 8

Trustpilot reply rate 63.5% — the lowest in cohort despite 120K reviews. Google Play reply rate is 100% including all negatives, suggesting selective engagement. iOS visibility gap is the only thing holding the score back further.

HEADWAY

Mixed · 5.5

Previously rated highest in cohort on Trustpilot's reply rate alone (87% on Trustpilot, 90% on negatives). Fuller picture now: Android engagement is total, iOS engagement is zero. Largest single regression in the benchmark.

Price disclosure

RISEGUIDE LEADER Mixed · 4.5 ▼ -0.5 Down from last week — see evidence. The two stores flipped this week. App Store pricing complaints more than doubled — from 8 to 17 — averaging 1.7 stars, while Google Play's eased from 10 to 5. The relief on one platform doesn't offset the surge on the other, because the App Store is now where both the volume and the fury live. Users keep describing a one-time price that quietly turned recurring: 'I made a purchase of 19.99 pounds... at no time did it state I'd have to keep paying continuously.'	LIVEN Critical · 3.5 Worst pricing-disclosure exposure in the cohort — pricing complaints reached the largest cluster across all four brands. No homepage pricing; users must complete a quiz to see plans.	COURSIV Critical · 3.5 Same quiz-funnel pattern as Liven: no upfront pricing, plans revealed at the end. Trial-to-renewal jump is the dominant friction in third-party complaints.	HEADWAY LEADER Mixed · 4.5 Second-worst pricing-complaint exposure despite mature operations. Website FAQ links to a pricing article rather than naming prices — a transparency gap hurting otherwise solid first impressions.

Hidden / recurring charges

RISEGUIDE

Critical · 2

▼ -0.5

Down from last week. This was already the worst-scoring billing signal, and this week the volume behind it surged — App Store payment complaints doubled to 15 at 1.3 stars. The language is unchanged and unambiguous: 'auto debit your account without your consent,' 'a really nasty scam: after my immediate cancellation, 49.99 euros was still debited monthly.' These are people who feel robbed, not confused, and there are simply more of them this week. The substance hasn't moved in months; the vocabulary and the volume both keep climbing.

The language is unchanged and blunt: 'auto debit your account without your consent,' 'a really nasty scam: after my immediate cancellation, 49.99 euros was still debited monthly.' These are people who feel robbed, not misinformed, and there are simply more of them this week. The single highest-leverage fix — an explicit charge-confirmation step before purchase — still hasn't shipped.

LIVEN

Critical · 2

Largest billing-flow exposure in cohort. Auto-renewal complaints are widespread across Trustpilot and unmanaged channels. Trial-to-subscription transition isn't clearly signalled — structural, not noise.

COURSIV

Critical · 2

Billing-adjacent complaints come from multiple vectors at once — payment surprises and deceptive-advertising complaints both active. BBB shows billing as the dominant complaint type historically.

HEADWAY

LEADER

Critical · 2.5

Significant billing-flow exposure despite mature operations. The 'HEADWAY APP IS A SCAM' Apple Communities thread persists, and unexpected weekly-premium charges after a 'free trial' remain the dominant Trustpilot 1-star theme.

Ease of cancellation

RISEGUIDE

Mixed · 4

▼ -0.5

Down from last week — see evidence.

The missing in-app cancel button is now the single mechanism tying the billing complaints together. Reviewer after reviewer this week: 'Auto subscribes and it's impossible to cancel,' 'no cancellation/refund option,' 'it's not showing up in my subscriptions.' The help guide still rescues whoever finds it, but the product gap it can't close is what turns a billing surprise into a fraud accusation. Linking the guide from the in-app billing screen is the cheap half of the fix; building a real in-app cancel path is the half that matters.

LIVEN

Critical · 3.5

iOS support sentiment netted out negative, and combined with the iOS reply silence, users trying to cancel can't reach support on the largest store.

COURSIV

Critical · 3.5

A third-party site publishes a dedicated 'How to Cancel Coursiv' guide — a clear signal that the native flow has enough friction to create a third-party niche.

HEADWAY

LEADER

Watch · 6

Best cancellation infrastructure in cohort: published pre-renewal rule, multiple cancellation paths, no negative support-experience cluster.

UI dark patterns

RISEGUIDE

Critical · 2.3

The pattern the company itself acknowledges — charging before a clearly stated renewal date with no email receipt — is generating the same angry reviews at higher volume this week, with auto-renewal warnings resurfacing on Trustpilot and both stores. Compliance flags also doubled to four this cycle, though these are billing-fraud accusations rather than content ones. The perception that the checkout is engineered against the user is hardening, not fading, and the rising complaint count is the proof.

LIVEN

Critical · 2.5

Bug complaints and pricing-flow complaints overlap — the combined cluster is the broadest in cohort. Developer publicly acknowledged manipulative rating prompts but underlying upsell flows still flagged as aggressive.

COURSIV

Critical · 2.5

Deceptive-advertising complaints are a distinctive cohort marker for Coursiv. The quiz-funnel pricing reveal is a textbook dark pattern that consistently surfaces in negative reviews.

HEADWAY

LEADER

Mixed · 4

Lower per-user incidence of dark-pattern complaints than peers. Apple Communities thread about misleading purchase flows persists, but the pattern is softer than what we see at Liven or Coursiv.

Refund policy clarity & enforcement

RISEGUIDE

Critical · 3

Refunds still run on negotiation, not policy. This week a customer who cancelled during a trial was charged monthly anyway and told the renewal wouldn't be refunded, while another is 'still waiting for a response regarding a refund.' With no refund policy published on the website, every outcome depends on which agent happens to answer. A clear, public refund policy remains the cheapest credibility fix anywhere in this dimension — and its absence is what keeps every refund a fresh argument.

LIVEN

Critical · 3

Claimed 30-day refund policy is enforced inconsistently — some refunds granted, others refused. With the iOS reply silence, refund threads on the largest store are structurally unanswered.

COURSIV

LEADER

Mixed · 4

Public Money-Back Guarantee exists but requires completing most of the program to qualify — excluding most dissatisfied users. The team engages with negatives but enforces the restriction. Documented policy is a transparency floor.

HEADWAY

Critical · 2.5

No public refund policy. Apple Communities and Trustpilot threads about refund refusals on full-year charges are active. With the iOS reply silence, refund threads on iOS are structurally ignored.

Company age & history

RISEGUIDE

Critical · 3

Still young and still faceless. The company is roughly two years old and the app about six months, and the only public record of who runs it remains a name on business-registration filings. Age will eventually harden into credibility on its own, but the one lever available today — a real founder story attached to a real person — still hasn't been pulled.

LIVEN

Watch · 6

Around 4.5 years operating — the second-longest track record in cohort after Headway.

COURSIV

Critical · 3

Under a year operating, despite already having a six-figure review base. Youngest entity in cohort; review-base-to-age ratio is anomalous.

HEADWAY

Healthy · 8

Six-plus years operating with a recent rebrand and publicly announced IPO plans. Most mature company in cohort by both operating history and corporate sophistication.

Legal & brand identity alignment

RISEGUIDE

Mixed · 5

Two forces cancelled out this week. On the negative side, the compliance flags on Trustpilot doubled to four and shifted from AI-fabrication claims to blunt fraud accusations ('They are SCAM,' 'pure fake'). On the positive side, no scam-flagging site cracked the top search results and the skeptical Reddit thread actually fell out of the top three. It's neither a fraud finding nor a clean bill of health — the score holds while the mix churns underneath it.

LIVEN

Corporate entity matches the consumer brand on billing and legal pages. Cyprus address publicly listed. Credibility signals in organic search results, no complaint domains ranking.

Third-party recognition

RISEGUIDE

Mixed · 4.7

Independent coverage is still a real asset — several 'is it worth it?' reviews rank on the first page and the app-overview video has been seen over 300,000 times — and creator sentiment even rose this week. But the gap between creators and their viewers is the story: sampled videos ran about 73% positive while their comment sections sat near 46%, with one top comment snapping, 'just say it as it is... honest review and no word that this is an advertisement... is this even legal?' The scam-framed video still holds above 15,000 views.

LIVEN

Flat from last week. The longest-running flat line in the report, and now the most exposed. No founder bio, no About page, no leadership presence anywhere in this week's search results, again — while reviewers openly accuse the brand of fraud and fabricated reviews. The absence of a named, photographed person to stand behind the product isn't just a missing nicety; it's the void those accusations rush to fill. A short founder bio with a real photo remains the single highest score-per-effort fix in the scorecard.

Initiatives that would lift the score

01 Publish an About-us page with founder bio

LIFTS: LEADERSHIP TRANSPARENCY · 3.0 → ~5 · Single content page — one photo, four links. Ship by Friday.

Liven publicly names CEO Shahrooz Chowdhury + 15 PhD advisors — scores 7. Headway publicly names founder Anton Pavlovsky with press coverage — scores 8.

How to ship

- 1 Commission a clean headshot of Oleksandr Matsiuk + draft a 2-paragraph bio (background + why RiseGuide exists)
- 2 Publish at riseguide.com/about with photo, bio, and a LinkedIn link
- 3 Link the page from the homepage footer and the App Store / Google Play developer pages

02 Publish an explicit refund + cancellation policy

LIFTS: REFUND POLICY 3.0 → 4+ · EASE OF CANCELLATION 4.3 → 5+ · Policy page + reply templates — text only, no engineering. Ship by Wednesday.

Headway's published 24-hour pre-renewal rule anchors their 6.0 score on cancellation (best in cohort). Coursiv's public Money-Back Guarantee anchors their 4.0 on refund policy.

How to ship

- 1 Write a 1-page policy: 7-day no-questions refund + 24-hour pre-renewal cancel rule
- 2 Publish at riseguide.com/refunds, link from the footer and every billing email
- 3 Update support reply templates + cross-link from in-app billing + store descriptions

Reviewers report surprise at the first payment amount, but the underlying model (introductory discount, then renewal at full price) is industry-standard. The complaint is about clarity of communication, not the pricing itself.

How to ship

- 1 Write a plain-English article: introductory price + when full price kicks in + how to cancel
- 2 Publish at support.riseguide.com/how-pricing-works, link from every billing email + App Store description
- 3 Update support reply templates to cite the article URL on every billing-surprise thread
